

Questions for your Plastic Surgeon

Which reconstructive option is best for me and why?

How many surgeries and office visits will be required over what period of time?

How many scars will I have and where will they be?

What's the best result I can hope for?

What will my recovery be like and how painful will it be?

What are the side effects and risks?

What medications will I need at home and how long will I take them?

What support will I need at home?

How long do I need to be out of work?